

Please do not allow people to use cellular phones on airborne aircraft, except during preflight and postflight operations. Flights are long enough without having to listen to someone's conversation.